Notifications relating to Non-Statutory Rules, Regulations and Orders and Resolutions issued by the Ministries of the Government of India (other than the Ministry of Defence) and by the Supreme Court

PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIATNew Delhi, the 18th April 1961*

No. 21-Pres./61.—The President is pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Mysore Police:—

Shri Shiddaramappa Gadigeppa Kallur, Police Inspector, Anti-Corruption Measures, Belgaum, Mysore.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

On the 31st January, 1959, notorious dacoit Shantappa Kedari Chadchan of Umrani village in the Indi Taluka of Bijapur District, shot dead the Sarpanch of the Village Umrani after an altercation, and absconded. Externment proceedings were started against him and his associates in Bijapur District but they evaded apprehension by moving from place to place along the border of Bijapur and Sholapur Districts.

On the 18th March, 1959, Shri S. G. Kallur, Police Inspector, Anti-Corruption Measures, Belgaum, who had been posted on special duty for recovery of illicit arms in Belgaum and Bijapur Districts, received reliable information that the dacoit Shantappa was likely to visit village Sank. Shri Kallur immediately formed two Police parties, one consisting of 7 men to work out accurate intelligence of the movements of Shantappa and another consisting of 14 members of the Bijapur District Police. The search for Shantappa commenced at 5.30 a.m. on the 19th March and was carried out systematically in the villages around Sank. Not finding Shantappa in the house of Chandashya Talawar at Sank, the Police looked for him unsuccessfully in the garden of one Malleshappa Patil and also in the farm house of Chandashya Talawar both of whom were suspected to be his harbourers. The Police party then surrounded the Guava garden belonging to Chandashya Talawar. Shri Kallur who led the main Police party located Shantappa and identified him by the rifle which he was holding high in his upraised hands to get easy passage through the thick shrubs. Providentially Shantappa could not get an opportunity to open fire on the police converging on him, and as soon as he cleared a small ridge, Shri Kallur suddenly pounced upon him and overpowered him before the outlaw could use his rifle. The other members of the Police party came quickly in and Shantappa was arrested. The rifle recovered from him had a live cartridge in the chamber and 5 cartridges in its magazine.

In this encounter with a dangerous armed criminal, Shri Kallur showed leadership, devotion to duty and conspicuous courage.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

No. 22-Pres./61.—The President is pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Madhya Pradesh Police:—

Shri Ram Akhtyar Singh, Platoon Commander, 1st Battalion, Special Armed Police, Gwalior, Madhya Pradesh, (deceased).

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded

On 30th December, 1960, Shri H. K. Pahuja, Superintendent of Police, Bhind, received information that the dangerous gang of the notorious dacoit Lakhani Singh had arrived in village Deora, Police Station Mehgaon, District Bhind. A tactical action was organised by Shri Pahuja in accordance with which three columns of police were to advance towards the village and endeavour to encircle the gang which was reported to be resting in a garden.

The three columns started moving towards village Deora at 12.30 hrs. The first column commanded by Shri Modi, Deputy Superintendent of Police, consisted of two platoons of the Crack Company of the 1st Battalion, S.A.F. The second column under Shri Madho Singh, Deputy Superintendent of Police, was composed of about two platoons with elements of the II, IV and V Battalions, S.A.F., and the third column under Sub-Inspector Vedram Singh coming up the tributary of river Beali, consisted of the third platoon of the Crack Company, I Bn S.A.F. It is probable that the gang first saw force number two under Shri Madho Singh and opened fire on it. The range was considerable but the police under Shri Madho Singh replied with concentrated Bren-gun bursts. The gang then retreated towards the south and were intercepted by Sub-Inspector Vedram Singh and his party coming up a nala. In retreating, the gang faced the main column under Shri Modi and entrenched themselves in cover provided by the village. They then subjected the advancing column of Shri Modi to severe fire. Sometime during this encounter, the notorious dacoit leader Lakhani Singh was injured by a bullet which entered his knee. The dacoits' escape route was further sealed by another column under Shri Pahuja which had arrived to cover the northern gap. A grim battle ensued and the advance of the police was stalled.

Platoon Commander Shri Ram Akhtyar Singh was at the extreme end of the advancing column with his platoon, and, as the firing continued, he saw a man crawling on the ground with a rifle in his hand. He was dressed in something like a police uniform, but this did not deceive the police officers. In fact when Platoon Commander Ram Akhtyar Singh moved forward to deal with him, the remaining members of his party shouted to him not to go any further. Platoon Commander Ram Akhtyar Singh, however, rushed forward probably because he had identified the dacoit. At close range Lakhani Singh could easily be identified because of his distinctive features. Platoon Commander Ram Akhtyar Singh reached Lakhani Singh before he could either escape or be taken away by his comrades. He fired at Lakhani Singh and probably killed him, but in his moment of triumph the dacoits who were guarding their leader opened fire and mortally wounded him. Even as he fell, Platoon Commander Ram Akhtyar Singh brought his rifle down on the dacoit leader.

Seeing their Platoon Commander in mortal danger, his men made a flanking attack to isolate the spot, but on reaching it, found that their Commander had laid down his life in killing the dacoit. The bodies of Platoon Commander Ram Akhtyar Singh and dacoit Lakhani Singh were found lying side by side, as if locked in an embrace which had ended the lives of both of them.

But for the high sense of duty, conspicuous courage and resourcefulness shown by Platoon Commander Ram Akhtyar Singh in attacking Lakhani Singh in the face of heavy fire, Lakhani Singh would have escaped once again and lived to continue his nefarious activities. Platoon Commander Ram Akhtyar Singh sacrificed his life in the hour of the greatest triumph that had been achieved by the police in this region and his valour will for ever be remembered in the annals of the Madhya Pradesh Police.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(1) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

No. 23-Pres./61.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Madhya Pradesh Police:—

Shri Ramgopal, Constable No. 211 of Police Station, Jhanda, District Ujjain, Madhya Pradesh (Deceased).

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded

On 29th December 1960 Head Constable Bahadur Singh and Constable Ramgopal of Police Station Jhanda, District Ujjain, Madhya Pradesh, while on patrol duty near village Kantharia noticed a stranger armed with a 12 bore gun. As the man appeared suspicious Shri Bahadur Singh and Shri Ramgopal went towards him to ascertain who he was and what he was doing there. As they approached the stranger, on seeing the uniformed Policemen ran away. Shri Bahadur Singh and Shri Ramgopal chased him. Some villagers also joined in the pursuit. Shri Ramgopal had a 303 rifle but Shri Bahadur Singh was unarmed. They pursued the suspect for three furlongs in the ravines of the river Sipra. The stranger who was no other than dacoit Sheosingh of the notorious gang of dacoit Karan Singh of Rajasthan, led the Policemen to an area covered with bushes where some other members of his gang were taking shelter, and concealed himself behind some bushes. The gang then opened fire on the pursuing party.

Shri Ramgopal who was foremost in the pursuit, took up position immediately and returned the fire. There was no cover nearby, and the dacoits fired at Constable Ramgopal who was hit by a bullet in the abdomen. Seeing the constable wounded, Head Constable Bahadur Singh, who was unarmed, tried to go to his help but Shri Ramgopal realising that Shri Bahadur Singh would be in danger of being hit, asked him not to come forward. Then Shri Ramgopal though wounded stood up and bravely advanced towards the dacoits until he fell with another bullet wound in the chest. Even in this condition he continued to fire on the dacoits till he became unconscious. Shri Bahadur Singh crawled towards him and took charge of his rifle. In the meantime the dacoits seeing the villagers in the distance took to their heels and ran into the jungle. Shri Ramgopal died on the way to hospital.

Constable Ramgopal exhibited presence of mind, great gallantry and devotion to duty in the performance of which he laid down his life.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
